Did you know? Minority-owned firms lead the nation in exporting. In fact, minority-owned firms have strong export capabilities across all industries. What does that mean to you and your business??

Many of our MBEs have expressed an interest in learning more about the basics of exporting. The expected benefits of this event include the following:

- > Determine if your business is ready for exporting
- > How to write an export plan
- > How to unlock sales opportunities worldwide

We are extending a special invitation to you to attend this informal roundtable discussion presented in partnership with the US Department of Commerce Indianapolis Export Assistance Center. The growth and success of your business is important to us.
